You

What if the ONLY thing you should DO and BE is YOU?

What if your well-being and joy is completely dependent on this activity?

Beyond your own well-being and joy, what if we are all interdependent and profoundly related and connected through this activity?

IF this is true then each and every one of us has an obligation to make this activity “job one”, for ourselves and indeed, all of humanity!

It may require nothing more than to give yourself permission to commit to and pursue your vision, or it may require some deeper soul searching. What are your passions? What do you want your life to be about? Once you have connected with yourself (again), the fun will begin (for all of us)!

I propose you consider yourself like a corporation; Y.O.U. inc. (Your Omnipotent Unity, advised from your higher self, your spirit, your intuition). As a corporation, you will write your mission statement, elect your board of trustees and seek to express your vision... Seek to Be and Do YOU.

Keep in mind YOU are the only one (of you) we have!

So get busy! We need you! Front & center!
